

Criminal Offenses

Any student committing a criminal offense will be reported to the police and will be subject to school disciplinary procedures in addition to possible criminal charges under the law. Sounding a false fire alarm is a criminal offense (class D felony).